

THE EUROPEAN
PEPTIDE SOCIETY

The European Peptide Society (EPS) invites applications from EPS members for

EPS Support of national meetings

The European Peptide Society sustains the organization of small scientific meetings initiated by EPS members from constituent countries. This support depends on the nature, the scientific content and the resources available to the Society.

Eligibility

At the time of application, the applicant must have been a member of the EPS for at least 12 months and needs to be affiliated to a higher education or research institute from an EPS constituent country. The event must take place in an EPS-constituent country.

Conditions

The EPS donation will be transferred to the organizer after: (i) the meeting has been held and (ii) a report about the meeting has been received by the Scientific Affairs Officer and the Communication Officer for publication in the EPS Newsletter and the internet website.

Application documents (in English language)

Application form includes a provisional scientific program, the organizing committee and/or the scientific committee as well as the website address for the meeting.

The complete application should be sent by e-mail to the Scientific Affairs Officer
Dr. Florine Cavelier (florine.cavelier@umontpellier.fr)

Applications are accepted to up 1 month before the event.

The European Peptide Society is a non-profit association established for the public benefit to promote in Europe and in neighboring countries the advancement of education and scientific study of the chemistry, biochemistry, biology and pharmacology of peptides.
